

Entering Grade 3

Summer Reading

Abe Lincoln at Last!
by Mary Pope Osborne

Assignment:

CHOICE 1: Cereal Box: Paint or cover a cereal box with paper. Be sure to include the title, author, your name, etc.

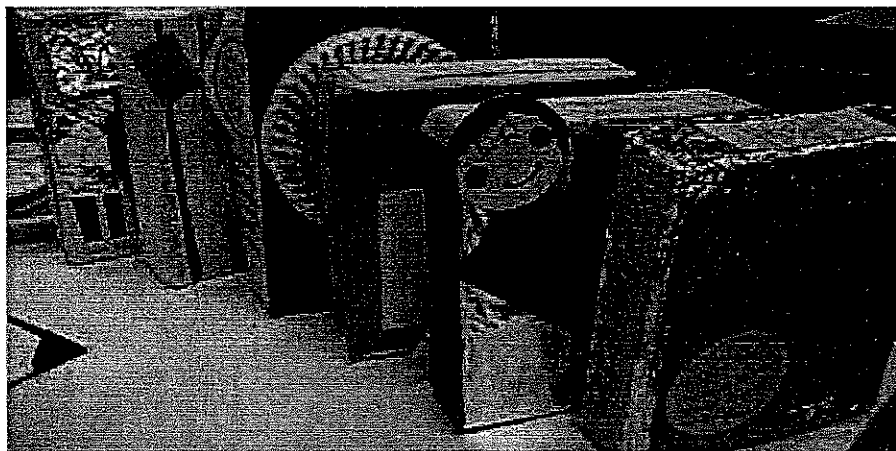

Cover: Draw a picture of the main characters.

Back: Write and draw a picture about how the family achieved their goal.

Side 1: Write sentences about the problem the family had to overcome.

Side 2: Write about your favorite part of the story.

CHOICE 2: Storyboard: Be a director for a film version of the book. Before filming begins, a storyboard of the various scenes of the film must be prepared. A storyboard is a comic strip style summary of the book. Be sure that your storyboard shows at least 5 of the major scenes from the book in order including the problem and the solution.

Assignments are due on the first day of school.